

May 2011

Dear friends,

The purpose of this letter is to ask you if you might consider financially supporting Sue and Simon Morgan in their new work to which God has now called them.

Sue and Simon have been to Rukungiri, Uganda with Mission Direct on four separate occasions in recent times and after their latest visit this March they have discerned that they are now called to commit themselves fulltime to this work with Mission Direct. Working in mission, they will not receive a salary but are looking to God, friends and churches to support them financially and in prayer.

Sue and Simon are heading back to Rukungiri on 4th June, initially to head up the Mission Direct summer campaign, hosting five teams of volunteers between June and October. They will construct three new brick built classrooms and toilet facilities for a village primary school of 209 pupils who are currently being taught in make-shift structures of sticks and mud. Afterwards Sue and Simon will turn their attention to further progressing the water project which they helped to set up during 2010 and which is already providing much needed clean drinking water to communities, schools, clinics, etc.

In Paul's letter to the Philippians, chapter 4 verse 10 we read that Paul rejoices that the people had concern for his well-being, and in verse 16 he says that " ...you sent me aid again and again." Paul was dependant on the people to support him in order that he could carry out the work that God had planned for him.

Someone once said that no-one would have remembered the Good Samaritan if all he had were good intentions; he needed money as well!

So they would be grateful if you could prayerfully consider how you might support them. You may like to make a regular donation by Standing Order ranging from £5 to over £100 a month. Alternatively you may prefer to give a one-off gift. And if appropriate sign a Gift Aid form thus increasing the support by 25p for every £1 donated. All you have to do is complete the following form and return to: Peter Goldie, 18 Oakham Grange, Manor Close, Ferndown, BH22 9BD or c/o St Mary's Church, Ferndown.

Thank you.

P.S. Please feel free to copy these details and forward to anyone else who may be interested.
