

STUDY NOTES: (Matthew 13:3-9; 18-23)
Sunday 29th May 2016

1. What do you think those who first heard this parable would have made it?
2. Why does Jesus use this parable?
3. Would this parable mean the same thing to the crowds and to the disciples?
4. How would it affect both their understanding of what is happening and their personal response?
5. And are those lessons relevant to us in our different situation? If so, how?

Note: May I encourage you read chapter 12 also.

Every blessing to you in your study, and may God increase in your understanding.

STUDY NOTES: (Matthew 13:3-9; 18-23)
Sunday 29th May 2016

1. What do you think those who first heard this parable would have made it?
2. Why does Jesus use this parable?
3. Would this parable mean the same thing to the crowds and to the disciples?
4. How would it affect both their understanding of what is happening and their personal response?
5. And are those lessons relevant to us in our different situation? If so, how?

Note: May I encourage you read chapter 12 also.

Every blessing to you in your study, and may God increase in your understanding.