1. Why was Eliab a sensible choice? How was he like Saul? Why would Samuel have been tempted to anoint him?
2. Why would that have been wrong? What does this teach us?
3. David is a saint who sinned. Saul rebelled against God and turned his back on Him. Discuss.
4. The Bible boils down to identity and relationship - who we are and God's relationship with us. Why is this important in the discussion about "David, a man after God's heart"?
5. David wrote many of the Psalms. Share your favourite one. What does this teach us about David's relationship with God and about his heart attitude?
