

Ephesians 3:14-21 – 29th Jan 2017

1. To whom is Paul writing to and why is he doing so?
2. How would following Paul's prayer as a model change the way you pray?
3. How (practically) can a Christian experience the power of God's Spirit in the inner man?
4. Why do we need this power in the inner being?
Matthew 23:27-28; Mark 7:21-23; Romans 8:9-10; 2 Corinthians 4:16; Galatians 2:20
5. Take some time to share with the group an area of your life where you need God's spiritual power
6. In Paul's day people usually stood to pray. Note in verse 14 how Paul says "I kneel before the Father". What does Paul's position of praying indicate about how Paul feels or Paul's attitude during this prayer?

Ephesians 3:14-21 – 29th Jan 2017

1. To whom is Paul writing to and why is he doing so?
2. How would following Paul's prayer as a model change the way you pray?
3. How (practically) can a Christian experience the power of God's Spirit in the inner man?
4. Why do we need this power in the inner being?
Matthew 23:27-28; Mark 7:21-23; Romans 8:9-10; 2 Corinthians 4:16; Galatians 2:20
5. Take some time to share with the group an area of your life where you need God's spiritual power
6. In Paul's day people usually stood to pray. Note in verse 14 how Paul says "I kneel before the Father". What does Paul's position of praying indicate about how Paul feels or Paul's attitude during this prayer?