

Home Group Bible Study Questions W/C Sunday 18th June 2017

1. In your reading Nehemiah 1, what draws your attention?
2. How does Nehemiah respond to the news concerning the state of Jerusalem (1:4)?
3. When you are deeply sad or frustrated over a difficult situation, what is your first reaction?
If it prayer, how do you begin your prayers to the Lord?
How is the opening to Nehemiah's prayer an example to you?
4. What walls in your life, country, community etc are broken that need the hand of the lord. What elements of Nehemiah's prayer do you need to employ more faithfully
5. In the first 11 verses of this book, what have Nehemiah's actions and words illustrated about his character?
List some character traits below.
Which ones do you wish described you more?
6. What do you notice about the structure and content of the prayer (1:5-11)?

Home Group Bible Study Questions W/C Sunday 18th June 2017

1. In your reading Nehemiah 1, what draws your attention?
2. How does Nehemiah respond to the news concerning the state of Jerusalem (1:4)?
3. When you are deeply sad or frustrated over a difficult situation, what is your first reaction?
If it prayer, how do you begin your prayers to the Lord?
How is the opening to Nehemiah's prayer an example to you?
4. What walls in your life, country, community etc are broken that need the hand of the lord. What elements of Nehemiah's prayer do you need to employ more faithfully
5. In the first 11 verses of this book, what have Nehemiah's actions and words illustrated about his character?
List some character traits below.
Which ones do you wish described you more?
6. What do you notice about the structure and content of the prayer (1:5-11)?