PRAYER FOCUS

Monday: Pray for God-given opportunities to show and share Christ's wisdom and love with the people we meet out in the places we usually find ourselves. Ask God to help you discover a rich variety of ways to work in you and through you, right where you are.

Tuesday: Pray for God's peace and presence for those in our congregation and community who are going through a difficult time. Pray for a supernatural breakthrough.

Wednesday: Pray for the PCC meeting at 7:30pm. Pray for God's divine wisdom and presence through the meeting.

Thursday: Pray for the families who have lost their loved ones and belongings in Grenfell Tower block in London due to the fire. Pray for God's comfort and provision.

Friday: Pray for the future of the UK. Pray for God's guidance in the Prime Minister's and Government decisions in which direction the country should go. Pray against fear of uncertainty of the future but rather faith and hope in Jesus.

Saturday: Ask God to show you one country in the world you should pray for. Seek God about the needs of that country and pray prophetically in those situation.

Sunday: Pray that in church services around the world the burdens of people will be broken in worship. Pray that people will filled with a new song and walk in divine freedom.

Participants will be required to pay a registration fee (to cover costs and insurance) and encouraged to raise as much money as possible through sponsors. St. Mary's will receive a contribution from the total raised. For more details, see of Spotlight.

Korean UK Prayer Mission

What's is all about?

In 2009 Pastor Choi woke up having had a dream of the camp fire that had gone out. As he looked he saw that actually there were some embers still aglow under the pile of ash and charcoal. He heard the voice of God instruct him to fan into flame the embers of the fire which were the churches of the UK. As a praying man he called upon the church to pray for their 'mother church' - the UK; and he decided to come on a personal pilgrimage to England and Wales to visit some of the churches who had sent missionaries to Korea in the mid 1800's.

During that visit he saw churches in decline, some which had that had been turned into wine bars, businesses and even temples of other religions. He was horrified.

When he returned to Seoul he called upon his church to pray with urgency for the UK and when he preached he told them of his dream of the campfire, the ash and the embers; he told them that God had gifted the Korean church with a burden of prayer and that some of them had to make pilgrimage to the UK to pray for the spiritual revival of the churches. That in going they would in fact be like fresh wood upon the fire so that when it was fanned there would be fresh tinder to burn. And come they did! In 2010 he sent a small number of praying pilgrims to visit churches in the UK to pray for revival within them. This has now become an annual pilgrimage. P.T.O

UK Prayer Mission:

Since 2010 thousands of prayer warriors from Korea have come on a pilgrimage to the UK to pray. Throughout England, Wales, Scotland and Ireland evangelical Korean's come for between 5-7 days to sleep on church floors, to pray through the night and visit to other churches in the area to pray for the spiritual revival of that church, churches and the area. And their four-fold prayer is amazing:

- They pray for the UK Church that it might grow and prosper and once again grow a generation of Christians on fire for God and with that same Victorian spirit of mission that the early missionaries had.
- They pray that God would bless Church leaders, their work and ministry; that they would prosper and be fruitful in ministry.
- They bless UK pulpits that God's Spirit of power and authority would flow out from the open gates of heaven, through the preached Word of God and through the mouths and lives of the preachers - to bless the hearers, the fellowships and congregations - and therefore the communities in which the churches are founded; and it would be like a mighty pent up flood from heaven.
- ...that revival would once again visit our land and church baptisteries would once again be regularly filled and used; that some of those new Christians baptised would be the missionaries of tomorrow who would take the gospel to the nations.

A team of 12 Korean Prayer Pilgrims will be coming to pray with us at St Mary's on Wednesday 28th June at 1.30pm
All are welcome!
