Monday: Following on from the message Barry Lomax preached last Sunday, pray that the Lord opens your eyes today to see the needs in our community. Pray that you will not be afraid to act on what God shows you but take the opportunity in Jesus name.

Tuesday: Pray for Kenya as the country goes for the presidential elections today. Pray for free, fair and peaceful elections. Pray that the new leadership will lead Kenya to prosperity, integrity and good governance .

Wednesday: Pray for protection of marriage against the schemes of the devil. Pray that marriages will remain strong and faithful amidst all the storms of life. Pray that love for God and each other will continue to grow.

Thursday: A new report by Christian Solidarity Worldwide has warned that Christians in Indonesia are facing religious intolerance. Pray that they remain courageous for the gospel amidst danger.

Friday: Pray that God will grant those who are suffering the hurts of the past to experience his generous love. Pray that God will heal their memories, comfort, renew and restore them in Jesus' name.

Saturday: Pray for those in our community and around the world who are restless with grief and fear. Pray for God's sustaining grace.

Sunday: Pray for all believers around the world to be blessed by the preaching of God's Word. Pray that our hearts will be full of expectation of God's presence.

Hall Corridor Drainage Works Update

Thank you for your patience during the drainage installation works in the hall corridor last week. Following some night work shifts we are delighted to report that the main works have been completed and we are now able to access the corridor and toilets again. Decorating and "making good" works will be undertaken this week. Let's give thanks for a much quicker project than anticipated and pray blessings on all the contractors involved.

Are you interested in confirmation?

If you would like to be confirmed at Salisbury Cathedral this November please speak to Patches to find out more.

Blessing Bin

Due to reorganisation at the Heatherlands Centre, items put in the Blessing Bin won't be collected until September.
